Richeson was electrocuted at 12:17
a. m. The current was turned on at 12:10:02 and the prisoner was declared dead at 12:17. The current applied was of 1,900 volts, eight amperes. One application was sufficient.The former Baptist clergyman, confessed poisoner of Avis Linnell of Hyannis, his one time sweetheart, was outwardly calm when he entered the death chamber and he maintained his composure while the straps and electrodes were being adjusted as he sat in the electric chair.Seated in the chair he was asked a series of questions by Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, his spiritual adviser. During his answers he said:"God will take care of my soul and I pray for all. I forgive everybody."

The last of the questions was:

"Are you willing to die for Jesus?"

The reply was:

"I am willing to die—"

As the word "die" came from the lips of the man in the chair the gold headed cane of Warden Bridges was tilted slightly upward and the current was turned on.

Sings Hymns in Last Hours.

When the officials and witnesses of the execution entered the death chamber after walking through the prison yard in a pelting rain they heard sounding through the walls the strains of song. It was Richeson and his spiritual advisers, Mr. Johnson and Chaplain Stebbins, singing. Distinctly audible as they closed were the words:"For I know what e'er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well."Among many letters addressed to Richeson which were opened by Warden Bridges was one which was found to contain cyanide of potassium. It was mailed from Station N, New York city, on May 19, at 3 p. m. It contained no clue to the sender, the powder being inclosed in a small sub-enveloped marked "headache powders."Analysis of it showed that it was poison of the same nature which was used in killing Avis Linnell.Attorney Morse advised Warden Bridges to make public the receipt of the powders. Richeson was innocent of any knowledge of the sending, the attorney said.It is expected the wishes of the dead man will be carried out and that he will be buried beside his mother in the family lot in Virginia. A brother, Douglas Richeson of Chicago, is in Boston to take charge of the remains.

HEAVY DAMAGE FROM RAIN

Roads, Crops and Railways Suffer
Near Winona, Minn.Winona, Minn., May 21.—The derailment of one train, the complete tying up of general traffic on another road and the general demoralization of traffic in this section, the washing away of many infant crops in the agricultural district and the obstruction of scores of county highways with the washing out of bridges and portions of soil roads, appear to be the material features which stand out as a result of Sunday night's terrific downpour of rain, the worst experienced in twenty years, according to many residents.
The damage will amount to thousands of dollars.

ANOTHER CUBAN REBELLION

General Uprising of Negroes Appears Imminent.Havana, May 21.—There is no room for doubt of the existence of a negro conspiracy extending to all the provinces of the island, with the apparent intention of taking up arms against the government. The negroes appear to have been roused to rebellion by the denial of what seems to them their just political rewards for services rendered in the war of independence.The feeling against the government has been intensified by a law denying the negroes the right to organize a political party.

HOUSE IN WARLIKE MOOD

Refuses to Pass Resolution Tending Toward World Peace.Washington, May 21.—The house was in a warlike mood and refused to pass two resolutions tending toward world peace. The first provided for the United States' share toward the maintenance of the inter-parliamentary union for international arbitration at Brussels, while the other authorized the president to instruct the American delegates to the next conference at The Hague to adopt the policy that hereafter no nation should go to war for the purpose of increasing its territory. Single objections were made to both, although Representative Bartholdt of Missouri, Republican, made a fervid plea for them.HOLDS SENATOR

ALLEGES CORRUPT METHODS

Senator Lea Introduces Resolution
Declaring Illegal Tactics Were Resorted to in Electing William Lorimer to the Senate From Illinois and That His Election Is Therefore Invalid.Washington, May 21.—The second struggle over the retention of William Lorimer of Illinois in the United States senate may be precipitated at any time from now on until final ad-judgment. The issues were drawn in the majority and minority reports of the special investigating committee.Senator Lea for the minority introduced a resolution declaring that corrupt practices were employed in Lorimer's election and that his election therefore was invalid. This resolution will be called up later, when Senator Fern of Indiana probably will open the debate for the minority. Senator Kenyon of Iowa and Senator Lea of Tennessee, the other two minority members of the committee, will speak.
The minority, in its conclusions, arraigned the course of Edward Hines during the grand jury investigations and during the committee investigation and submitted the following resolution:"Resolved, That corrupt methods and practices were employed in the election of William Lorimer to the senate of the United States from the state of Illinois and that his election, therefore, was invalid."

Severely Criticizes Hines.

"We believe the testimony of Clarence Funk and W. M. Burgess to be true," the report states. "This conclusion is strengthened by consideration of Edward Hines' action during the grand jury investigation, when he tried to get O'Brien and Cook out of the jurisdiction of the grand jury, and of his suspicious and questionable transactions during this investigation;
and we believe that Hines was an accessory to the corruption which resulted in the election of Lorimer.""Believing that the confessions of the members of the legislature, re-strengthened by corroborating circumstances and by other evidence relating to the members of the legislature who did not confess, establish conclusively not only that at least ten votes were purchased for the purpose of electing William Lorimer to the senate, but that the record reeks and teems with evidence of a general scheme of corruption, we have no hesitancy in stating that the investigation establishes beyond contradiction that the election of William Lorimer was obtained by corrupt means and therefore was invalid."

Precedents Not Binding.

The minority pointed out that the analogy which has been drawn between the trial of an election case by the senate and a criminal trial is most misleading and that the senate is not bound by any precedents.Attacking the majority's contention as to the doctrine of res adjudicata the minority declared there was no senate precedent holding that a contested election case that might not be reopened.It was inconceivable that the majority members of the investigating committee would have sanctioned the expense involved in this reinvestigation if they believed that neither the committee nor the senate could consider the result of their labor and the product of the investigation at such an enormous cost "no matter what new and important evidence might have been developed thereby."The minority announced as important fact that it was developed that no third degree or improper methods were used by the Cook county grand jury in examining members of the legislature and that no witnesses were terrorized into giving testimony that was false.

Sufficient Votes Corrupted.

"In view of these facts, sufficient votes having been corrupted," says the minority, "it is not necessary for us to show either Senator Lorimer's connection with or guilty knowledge of the corruption, nor is it necessary for us to trace the source of the corruption fund.""Mr. Lorimer's hand was the guiding force in shaping the action of the legislature in Illinois in 1909. He was in such close consultation with Speaker Shurtleff and Minority Leader Lee O'Neil Browne as to justify the belief that these men were his agents and to warrant holding him bound by their actions.""The agency of these men is so thoroughly established that Senator Lorimer could reap no reward by virtue of their wrongful action without being equally guilty and responsible for their wrongdoing."Reading.

ARE DARK HORSESSenator Depew Says Hughes Is Out of Consideration.Washington, May 21.—There was a renewal of the talk of a compromise candidate in Washington. It appeared to be about the senate especially.
Some of the Republican leaders appeared to think that if President Taft failed to carry Ohio it would be time to consider a dark horse. Senator Depew was on the senate floor and made a contribution to the gossip by stating frankly that Associate Justice Hughes was entirely out of consideration and that it was useless to talk of him.Senator Root was in New York and a story was afloat that he had gone there to confer with men who are prominent in business and politics and who would like to see either Senator Root or Senator Lodge get into the fight as a compromise candidate. The story went about the senate corridors that Senator Root was really desirous of having the honor go to Senator Lodge and that it was in the interest of such result that he had gone to New York.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES HEAVY

New York World Says Roosevelt Men
Have Spent More Than a Million.New York, May 21.—A Washington dispatch to the World says:"More than $1,000,000 has been expended in the campaign to procure the Republican presidential nomination for Theodore Roosevelt and the daily expenses are increasing as the time for the assembling of the Chicago convention approaches.""The items of expense include everything from a postage stamp to a special train and from an office boy to a general manager. It cost $78,000 for stamps to distribute circulars in eight states. The telegraph tolls have been about $15,000 and the telephone bills as much. Roosevelt speakers have cost an average of $100 a speech.""The weekly 'plate' service to newspapers runs up an expense account of $75,000 or $100,000 for the campaign. Printing and lithographing will cost $200,000 before the last delegate is elected."

CALL MAY BE RESCINDED

Move on Foot to Postpone Minnesota
Convention.St. Paul, May 21.—The call for a state nominating convention July 2 will probably be rescinded by the Republican state central committee, pending action by the legislature
when it meets in special session June 4 to consider the enactment of a primary law. E. E. Smith, chairman of the committee, said he will call a meeting as soon as he can get in touch with a few more members."I do not know what action the state central committee will take,"
said Mr. Smith, "but I see only one way out of it and that is to rescind the call and wait and see what action the legislature takes on the primary question."

HOUSE AND SENATE IN CONTEST

Deadlock Certain to Come Over the Various Bills With Regard to Which
the Two Houses Have Divergent Views—Pujo Tells of Raising the Bottom of the Mississippi River.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 20.—[Special.]—It is doubtful whether presidential politics will allow much interest to attach to what would be an absorbing congressional situation. I refer to the contest between the house and the senate.
The house has stuffed the appropriation bills with legislation which the senate promptly rejects. That a deadlock will be the result is certain.So far the men who have charge of the various bills have not come together and shown the divergent views existing between the two houses. There has been a delay indicating a desire to postpone the fight or a wariness about engaging in it. These men may be likened to a pair of wrestlers or pugil-ists, who circle about each other, sparring ineffectively or watching each other cautiously, each waiting for an advantage, each knowing that sooner or later they must "come to scratch." Even when the contest reaches its most acute stage it is likely to be so outclassed with the presidential situation that it will cause but little comment.

Raising the River.

Congressman Pujo of Louisiana and former Congressman Olcott of New York met on the street the other day and discussed the flood situation on the Mississippi river. Pujo being much interested because his state was being submerged. He explained to Olcott that there were places along the river where the levees were about sixty feet high and the water was within a foot of the top. He went further into the subject and said that in some places the bottom of the river had been raised by the levee system until it was higher than the adjacent land. We have heard such things asserted often, although it seems incredible. It looks as if the river has been raised high enough.

Mann, the Objector.

Long before he became minority leader of the house Congressman Jim Mann won the title of "objector," because he was always opposing bills and motions. Recently two Colorado men were trying to secure the passage of a bill by unanimous consent. Mann said he was going to object. Both Rucker and Taylor asked why he objected, and Mann replied:"I object to the principle of the bill.
I object to the form. I object to the substance. I object to the manner.""Outside of that is there anything else that you object to?" asked Taylor.

"Show For His Alley."

The minority leader usually inter-poses before making a flat footed objection the remark "reserving the right to object" and then asks for an explanation of the bill. When a bill was called up not long ago Mann modified his statement by saying, "If the gentleman wants to make a statement
I will reserve an objection.""Does the gentleman object?" asked Speaker Clark, who did not want the time wasted."In the end I shall object," replied Mann."You might as well make your objection now," said the speaker."I always give a man a show for his white alley," was Mann's explanation."There is not much show for any man's white alley to let him talk and explain and then object to his bill," commented Foster of Illinois.

The New Coins.

If the bill which passed the house providing for coining three cent pieces and one-half cent pieces shall become a law the color of the present pennies will be changed to look like the five cent pieces in circulation. Careful inquiry was made, and the bill when passed provided that the new coins should not in any way interfere with the size of coins in existence or with the present size coins changed. It developed that not only slot machines, but that large banks, use devices for counting coins by their size, and any change in the size of the coins would be very expensive.

Austin's Suggestion.

Congressman Peters of Massachusetts was trying to get through a bill which would cost the government money. Fitzgerald of New York showed a disposition to oppose the measure. During a slight lull Congressman Austin said to Peters:"I suggest the gentleman reserve the balance of his time to answer the watchdog of the treasury, who is to follow him."

Criticizes Lawyers.

Senator Root very frequently hurls a brick at lawyers, more particularly that class that lives by picking up cases. Supporting the employers' liability bill, he said it relieved the laboring men from "dependence upon the class of lawyers who have fattened upon their misfortunes, and it substitutes the certainty of reasonable compensation without the necessity of paying a large part to a lawyer for a gamblers risk that every poor fellow who is hurt now takes."

responsibility for the growth of trusts on Theodore Roosevelt and said trusts here. After he had delivered his speech in Dennison the former president started for Oyster Bay, where he expects to be when the returns from the Ohio primaries come in.Colonel Roosevelt emphasized two points in his speeches. He said, first, that there would be no compromise in the selection of a Republican candidate for president so far as he was concerned."I'll name the compromise candidate," he went on; "he'll be me. I'll name the compromise platform; it will be our platform."The former president also called attention to the part which the Republican national committee will play in determining the makeup of the Chicago convention. He declared the bosses would not be permitted to take

CLARK WORRIES HIS RIVALS

Other Candidates Plan Campaign for Uninstructed Delegates.Washington, May 21.—As Speaker Clark's presidential campaign has made more progress than his rivals had estimated the national campaign managers of the Wilson, Harmon and Underwood campaigns are now promoting a compact to fight for uninstructed delegations in the states that are yet to select delegates to the Baltimore convention. The object of this policy is to prevent Clark securing a vote on the first ballot that will bring him within striking distance of his goal, two-thirds of the strength of the convention.According to the belief of the trio of managers opposing the speaker's selection on the first ballot it will be comparatively easy to prevent Speaker Clark from having a two-thirds vote unless the unforeseen happens and the speaker corals the lion's share of the uninstructed delegates.

ther regain his strength. It is his

EXPIATES CRIME IN DEATH CHAIR

Rev. C. V. T. Richeson Calmly Faces Execution.

Current of Nineteen Hundred Volts Passes Through Body of Condemned Man and in Seven Minutes the Confessed Poisoner of Avis Linnell
Is Pronounced Dead—Sang Hymns
During His Last Hours.

Boston, May 21.—Clarence V. T. Richeson was electrocuted at 12:17 a. m. The current was turned on at 12:10:02 and the prisoner was declared dead at 12:17. The current applied was of 1,900 volts, eight amperes. One application was sufficient.

The former Baptist clergyman, confessed poisoner of Avis Linnell of Hyannis, his one time sweetheart, was outwardly calm when he entered the death chamber and he maintained his composure while the straps and electrodes were being adjusted as he sat in the electric chair.

Seated in the chair he was asked a series of questions by Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, his spiritual adviser. During his answers he said:

"God will take care of my soul and I pray for all. I forgive everybody."

The last of the questions was:

"Are you willing to die for Jesus' sake?"

The reply was:

"I am willing to die—"

As the word "die" came from the lips of the man in the chair the gold headed cane of Warden Bridges was tilted slightly upward and the current was turned on.

Sings Hymns in Last Hours.

When the officials and witnesses of the execution entered the death chamber after walking through the prison yard in a pelting rain they heard sounding through the walls the strains of song. It was Richeson and his spiritual advisers, Mr. Johnson and Chaplain Stebbins, singing. Distinctly audible as they closed were the words:

"For I know what e'er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well."

Among many letters addressed to Richeson which were opened by Warden Bridges was one which was found to contain cyanide of potassium. It was mailed from Station N, New York city, on May 19, at 3 p. m. It contained no clue to the sender, the powder being inclosed in a small sub-enveloped marked "headache powders." Analysis of it showed that it was poison of the same nature which was used in killing Avis Linnell.

Attorney Morse advised Warden Bridges to make public the receipt of the powders. Richeson was innocent of any knowledge of the sending, the attorney said.

It is expected the wishes of the dead man will be carried out and that he will be buried beside his mother in the family lot in Virginia. A brother, Douglas Richeson of Chicago, is in Boston to take charge of the remains.

HEAVY DAMAGE FROM RAIN

Roads, Crops and Railways Suffer
Near Winona, Minn.

Winona, Minn., May 21.—The derailment of one train, the complete tying up of through traffic on another road and the general demoralization of traffic in this section, the washing away of many infant crops in the agricultural district and the obstruction of scores of county highways with the washing out of bridges and portions of soil roads, appear to be the material features which stand out as a result of Sunday night's terrific downpour of rain, the worst experienced in twenty years, according to many residents. The damage will amount to thousands of dollars.

General Uprising of Negroes Appears Imminent.

Havana, May 21.—There is no room for doubt of the existence of a negro conspiracy extending to all the provinces of the island, with the apparent intention of taking up arms against the government. The negroes appear to have been roused to rebellion by the denial of what seems to them their just political rewards for services rendered in the war of independence.

The feeling against the government has been intensified by a law denying the negroes the right to organize a political party.

HOUSE IN WARLIKE MOOD

Refuses to Pass Resolution Tending Toward World Peace.

Washington, May 21.—The house was in a warlike mood and refused to pass two resolutions tending toward world peace. The first provided for the United States' share toward the maintenance of the inter-parliamentary union for international arbitration at Brussels, while the other authorized the president to instruct the American delegates to the next conference at The Hague to adopt the policy that hereafter no nation should go to war for the purpose of increasing its territory. Single objections were made to both, although Representative Bartholdt of Missouri, Republican, made a fervid plea for them.

HOLDS SENATOR LORIMER GUILTY

Minority of Senate Committee Submits Its Report.

Senator Lea Introduces Resolution
Declaring Illegal Tactics Were Resorted to in Electing William Lorimer to the Senate From Illinois
and That His Election Is Therefore Invalid.

Washington, May 21.—The second struggle over the retention of William Lorimer of Illinois in the United States senate may be precipitated at any time from now on until final adjournment. The issues were drawn in the majority and minority reports of the special investigating committee.

Senator Lea for the minority introduced a resolution declaring that corrupt practices were employed in Lorimer's election and that his election therefore was invalid. This resolution will be called up later, when Senator Fern of Indiana probably will open the debate for the minority. Senator Kenyon of Iowa and Senator Lea of Tennessee, the other two minority members of the committee, will speak.

The minority, in its conclusions, arraigned the course of Edward Hines during the grand jury investigations and during the committee investigation and submitted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That corrupt methods and practices were employed in the election of William Lorimer to the senate of the United States from the state of Illinois and that his election, therefore, was invalid."

Severely Criticizes Hines.

"We believe the testimony of Clarence Funk and W. M. Burgess to be true," the report states. "This conclusion is strengthened by consideration of Edward Hines' action during grand jury investigation, when he tried to get O'Brien and Cook out of the jurisdiction of the grand jury, and of his suspicious and questionable transactions during this investigation; and we believe that Hines was an accessory to the corruption which resulted in the election of Lorimer."

"Believing that the confessions of the members of the legislature, strengthened by corroborating circumstances and by other evidence relating to the members of the legislature who did not confess, establish conclusively not only that at least ten votes were purchased for the purpose of electing William Lorimer to the senate, but that the record reeks and teems with evidence of a general scheme of corruption, we have no hesitancy in stating that the investigation establishes beyond contradiction that the election of William Lorimer was obtained by corrupt means and therefore was invalid."

Precedents Not Binding.

The minority pointed out that the analogy which has been drawn between the trial of an election case by the senate and a criminal trial is most misleading and that the senate is not bound by any precedents.

Attacking the majority's contention as to the doctrine of res adjudicata the minority declared there was no senate precedent holding that a contested election case that might not be reopened.

It was inconceivable that the majority members of the investigating committee would have sanctioned the expense involved in this reinvestigation if they believed that neither the committee nor the senate could consider the result of their labor and the product of the investigation at such an enormous cost "no matter what new and important evidence might have been developed thereby."

The minority announced as important fact that it was developed that no third degree or improper methods were used by the Cook county grand jury in examining members of the legislature and that no witnesses were terrorized into giving testimony that was false.

Sufficient Votes Corrupted.

"In view of these facts, sufficient votes having been corrupted," says the minority, "it is not necessary for us to show either Senator Lorimer's connection with or guilty knowledge of the corruption, nor is it necessary for us to trace the source of the corruption fund."

"Mr. Lorimer's hand was the guiding force in shaping the action of the legislature in Illinois in 1909. He was in such close consultation with Speaker Shurtliff and Minority Leader Lee O'Neil Browne as to justify the belief that these men were his agents and to warrant holding him bound by their actions."

"The agency of these men is so thoroughly established that Senator Lorimer could reap no reward by virtue of their wrongful action without being equally guilty and responsible for their wrongdoing."

JUDGE GARY.

Denies Contributing to the Roosevelt Campaign.

GARY REFUTES LA FOLLETTE

Neither He Nor Steel Trust Has Contributed to Roosevelt Fund.

New York, May 21.—Judge Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, referring to the recent statement of Senator La Follette that he (Gary) had contributed to the Roosevelt campaign, said:

"Neither I nor the United States Steel corporation has contributed, or is contributing, or has been asked to contribute anything whatever to the Roosevelt campaign."

ROOT AND LODGE ARE DARK HORSES

Senator Depew Says Hughes Is Out of Consideration.

Washington, May 21.—There was a renewal of the talk of a compromise candidate in Washington. It appeared to be a renewal of the talk of a compromise candidate in Washington. It appeared to be a renewal of the talk of a compromise candidate in Washington.

Senator Root was in New York and a story was afloat that he had gone there to confer with men who are prominent in business and politics and who would like to see either Senator Root or Senator Lodge get into the fight as a compromise candidate.

New York World Says Roosevelt Men
Have Spent More Than a Million.

New York, May 21.—A Washington dispatch to the World says:

"More than $1,000,000 has been expended in the campaign to procure the Republican presidential nomination for Theodore Roosevelt and the daily expenses are increasing as the time for the assembling of the Chicago convention approaches."

"The items of expense include everything from a postage stamp to a special train and from an office boy to a general manager. It cost $78,000 for stamps to distribute circulars in eight states. The telegraph tolls have been about $15,000 and the telephone bills as much. Roosevelt speakers have cost an average of $100 a speech."

"The weekly 'plate' expense to newspapers runs up an average account of $75,000 or $100,000 for the campaign. Printing and lithographing will cost $200,000 before the last delegate is elected."

Convention.

St. Paul, May 21.—The call for a state nominating convention July 2 will probably be rescinded by the Republican state central committee, pending action by the legislature when it meets in special session June 4 to consider the enactment of a primary law. E. E. Smith, chairman of the committee, said he will call a meeting as soon as he can get in touch with a few more members.

"I do not know what action the state central committee will take," said Mr. Smith, "but I see only one way out of it and that is to rescind the call and wait and see what action the legislature takes on the primary question."

POLITICS HAS THE RIGHT OF WAY

Detracts From an Absorbing Congressional Situation.

HOUSE AND SENATE IN CONTEST

Deadlock Certain to Come Over the
Various Bills With Regard to Which
The Two Houses Have Divergent
Views—Pujo Tells of Raising the Bottom of the Mississippi River.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington May 20.—[Special.]—It is doubtful whether presidential politics will allow much interest to attach to what would be an absorbing congressional situation. I refer to the contest between the house and the senate. The house has stuffed the appropriation bills with legislation which the senate promptly rejects. That a deadlock will be the result is certain.

So far the men who have charge of the various bills have not come together and shown the divergent views existing between the two houses. There has been a delay indicating a desire to postpone the fight or a wariness about engaging in it. These men may be likened to a pair of wrestlers or pugilists, who circle about each other, sparing ineffectively or watching each other cautiously, each knowing that sooner or later they must "come to scratch."

Even when the contest reaches its most acute stage it is likely to be so outclassed with the presidential situation that it will cause but little comment.

Raising the River.

Congressman Pujo of Louisiana and former Congressman Olcott of New York met on the street the other day and discussed the flood situation on the Mississippi river. Pujo being much interested because his state was being submerged. He explained to Olcott that there were levees along the river where the levees were about sixty feet high and the water was within a foot of the top. He went further into the subject and said that in some places the bottom of the river had been raised by the levee system until it was higher than the adjacent land. We have heard such things asserted often, although it seems incredible. It looks as if the river has been raised high enough.

Mann, the Objector.

Long before he became minority leader of the house Congressman Jim Mann won the title of "objector," because he was always opposing bills and motions. Recently two Colorado men were trying to secure the passage of a bill by unanimous consent. Mann said he was going to object. Both Rucker and Taylor asked why he objected, and Mann replied:

"I object to the principle of the bill. I object to the form. I object to the substance. I object to the manner."

"Outside of that is there anything else that you object to?" asked Taylor.

The minority leader usually interposes before making a flat footed objection the remark "reserving the right to object" and then asks for an explanation of the bill. When a bill was called up not long ago Mann modified his statement by saying, "If the gentleman wants to make a statement I will reserve an objection."

"Does the gentleman object?" asked Speaker Clark, who did not want the time wasted.

"In the end I shall object," replied Mann.

"You might as well make your objection now," said the speaker.

"I always give a man a show for his white alley," was Mann's explanation. "There is not much show for any man's white alley to let him talk and explain and then object to his bill," commented Foster of Illinois.

The New Coins.

If the bill which passed the house providing for coining three cent pieces and one-half cent pieces shall become a law the color of the present pennies will be changed to look like the five cent pieces in circulation. Careful inquiry was made, and the bill when passed provided that the new coins should not in any way interfere with the size of coins in existence or the present sized coins in circulation. It developed that not only slot machines, but that large banks, use devices for counting coins by their size, and any change in the size of the coins would be very expensive.

Austin's Suggestion.

Congressman Peters of Massachusetts was trying to get through a bill which would cost the government money. Fitzgerald of New York showed a disposition to oppose the measure. During a slight lull Congressman Austin said to Peters:

"I suggest the gentleman reserve the balance of his time to answer the watchdog of the treasury, who is to follow him."

Critiques Lawyers.

Senator Root very frequently hurls a brick at lawyers, more particularly that class that lives by picking up cases. Supporting the employers' liability bill, he said it relieved the laboring men from "dependence upon the class of lawyers who have fattened upon their misfortunes, and it substitutes the certainty of reasonable compensation without the necessity of paying a large part to a lawyer for a gambler's risk that every poor fellow who is hurt now takes."

Large Sum for Campaign

Hat Passed for La Follette at Cleveland Meeting.

Cleveland, May 21.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, before a large crowd, declared that the trusts of the United States are making of the people commercial and industrial slaves and that when commercial and industrial freedom is lost political independence is soon destroyed. The senator placed responsibility for the growth of trusts on Theodore Roosevelt and said trusts had continued to grow under William H. Taft.

La Follette's speech was his third of the day and his last in Ohio. A remarkable feature of the meeting was that at its inception it was announced a collection would be taken to help defray the expenses of the campaign. Hats were passed and a large sum was obtained, most of the auditors contributing without a murmur.

KING ALBERT.

Will Prosecute Authors
of Scandalous Reports.

SCANDAL HITS BELGIAN KING

Monarch to Prosecute Those Who Circulated Reports.

Brussels, May 21.—A semi-official communication dealing with reports as to the private life of the royal family was issued as follows:

"Since a recent garden party held at Laeken calumnyous rumors have been put in circulation concerning the private life of the royal family. It even was declared that on the day of the garden party the queen surprised King Albert in the company of a lady of the chamber and that the queen shot the woman dead with a revolver."

"King Albert had no knowledge of these reports, although for several days military officers attached to the court had learned of them by telephone calls."

"After consultation it was decided to acquaint the king with the report. His majesty was astonished and very indignant. He decided to prosecute the authors of the report and all persons repeating them."

"Criminal proceedings have been instituted before the king's procurator."

KILLED WHILE GOING TO KING'S FUNERAL

Prince George William Dies in Auto Accident.

Friesach, Prussia, May 21.—Prince George William, the eldest son of the Duke of Cumberland, and his chamberlain, Von Grove, were killed instantly in an automobile accident on the highway near here. They left Berlin intending to proceed to Copenhagen by way of Hamburg to attend the funeral of the prince's uncle, King Frederick VIII.

The prince, who was at the steering wheel, probably failed to observe the signs of warning that the highway was being repaved and drove the machine at full speed into a part of the roadway which was being macadamized. He lost control of the machine, which was ditched and turned on its end. The prince's head was crushed. Chamberlain von Grove's neck was broken. The chauffeur, who was inside the automobile, suffered from a broken arm.

Prince George William was born in 1889. His father, Duke Ernest August, Duke of Cumberland and Duke of Brunswick and Lunebourg, is head of the house of Guelphs.

ROOT WILL WIELD GAVEL

Accepts Temporary Chairmanship of Republican Convention.

Chicago, May 21.—Colonel Harry S. New announced United States Senator Elihu Root as temporary chairman of the Republican national convention.

It was rumored after the meeting of the subcommittee on arrangements Saturday that the temporary chairmanship had been offered him. The meeting adjourned with the announcement that the selection had been left entirely in the hands of Colonel New.

It had been common gossip in political circles that Senator Root would be acceptable to both the Taft and the Roosevelt forces.

"I just received the acceptance of Senator Root," said Colonel New when he made the announcement. "There is nothing more that I can say."

LARGE SUM FOR CAMPAIGN

Hat Passed for La Follette at Cleveland Meeting.

Cleveland, May 21.—Senator Robert M. La Follette, before a large crowd, declared that the trusts of the United States are making of the people commercial and industrial slaves and that when commercial and industrial freedom is lost political independence is soon destroyed. The senator placed responsibility for the growth of trusts on Theodore Roosevelt and said trusts had continued to grow under William H. Taft.

PRESIDENT DUBS COLONEL BOLTER

ROOSEVELT ENDS CAMPAIGN

Says He Will Be the Compromise Candidate.

Dennison, O., May 21.—The Roosevelt campaign in Ohio came to an end here. After he had delivered his speech in Dennison the former president started for Oyster Bay, where he expects to be when he returns from the Ohio primaries come in.

Colonel Roosevelt emphasized two points in his speeches. He said, first, that there would be no compromise in the selection of a Republican candidate for president so far as he was concerned.

"I'll name the compromise candidate," he went on; "he'll be me. I'll name the compromise platform; it will be our platform."

The former president also called attention to the part which the Republican national committee will play in determining the makeup of the Chicago convention. He declared the bosses would not be permitted to take control.

CLARK WORRIES HIS RIVALS

Other Candidates Plan Campaign for Uninstructed Delegates.

Washington, May 21.—As Speaker Clark's presidential campaign has made more progress than his rivals had estimated the national campaign managers of the Wilson, Harmon and Underwood campaigns are now promoting a compact to fight for uninstructed delegations in the states that are yet to select delegates to the Baltimore convention. The object of this policy is to prevent Clark securing a vote on the first ballot that will bring him within striking distance of his goal, two-thirds of the strength of the convention.

According to the belief of the trio of managers opposing the speaker's selection on the first ballot it will be comparatively easy to prevent Speaker Clark from having a two-thirds vote unless the unforeseen happens and the speaker corals the lion's share of the uninstructed delegates.

MORSE INTENDS TO FIGHT

Freed Banker Will Sue to Recover Property.

Washington, May 21.—Charles W. Morse, the former ice king and banker of New York, will return from Europe this month and go to his old home at Bath, Me., where he will spend some time in an effort to further regain his strength. It is his purpose to institute litigation in the courts of New York to recover his equity in the Metropolitan Steamship line, which was sold at a receiver's sale after his arrest. This information has been received in Washington from a source that is considered reliable.

$7,000 STOLEN FROM SAFE

Pay for Soldiers at William Henry Harrison Post in Montana.

Helena, Mont., May 21.—Seven thousand dollars in cash in the quartermaster's safe at Fort William Henry Harrison has been stolen and there seems to be no clue as to who took the money.

The $7,000, which was under guard of a squad of soldiers, was held to meet the payroll of the Second battalion of the Fourteenth infantry and was awaiting the arrival of the post quartermaster, Lieutenant C. P. Titus, for distribution.

Taft Takes Final Fling at Roosevelt in Ohio.

STRONG PLEA FOR SUPPORT

In Practically Every One of a Dozen Speeches Chief Executive Appeals to Republicans to Decide for Themselves Whether or Not They Wish the party Disrupted to Gratify the Ambition of One Man.

Dayton, O., May 21.—President Taft's seven days of speechmaking through Ohio came to an end here with a final plea to Republicans of his own state to give him their support at the primaries and to defeat Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, whom Mr. Taft dubbed the "bolter."

In practically every one of the dozen speeches he made Mr. Taft appealed to Republicans to consider and keep in mind Colonel Roosevelt's Cleveland speech, where, the president said, the colonel prophesied a bolt. He asked his hearers to decide for themselves whether or not they wished the party disrupted, "to gratify the ambition of one man."

At Piqua Mr. Taft aimed a shot at Gifford Pinchot. "Mr. Pinchot, that reliable historian," said the president, "has been going around the country saying that I got up the Canadian reciprocity business and figured out just how it would hurt most bitterly certain states that had voted against me. That I just took the schedules and figured them out so as to hit South Dakota between the eyes and so as to hit Ohio. Well, you cannot argue with a man like that."

It was a hard day for Mr. Taft. The sun was hot and he often spoke in its full glare. His voice showed the strain of the long tour. In the morning he started out with unusual vim and vigor, but as night drew near he lost much of his emphasis and while his words and phrases directed at Colonel Roosevelt still were bitter his gestures were few and his manner was more reticent than energetic.

The crowds were fully up to the mark set earlier in the campaign and at several towns exceeded, in the estimation of local officials, any ever seen at political gatherings. The demonstrations were lively.

Mr. Taft has spent six days on his private car and one day in Cleveland. The trip has been as trying upon the president as any he ever has undertaken and Major Thomas I. Rhodes, his physician, while confident he will be able to take up his campaign in New Jersey on Thursday, believed a rest will be wise.

OHIO RESTS FROM STRAIN

Four Presidential Candidates Covered the State.

Columbus, O., May 21.—Ohio rested from the strain of the last two weeks' campaign, during which four presidential candidates toured the state.

Three of the Republican candidates for the presidential nomination carried their fights almost up to the hour of balloting. President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and Senator La Follette made addresses offering their final pleas. Governor Judson Harmon refused several invitations to speak. He ended his fight Saturday. One of the last states to hold presidential preference primaries and the home of two of the candidates, Ohio,

The subject of rosin on your mitts as an aid to pitching in rainy weather is the source of much conversation and considerable argument in the local baseball world. "If it's all right to rosin the ball in a rain storm," said one fan, "our side ought to oil the ball on a hot day." The league book of rules clearly forbids rosinning the ball or the players' hands.

On Sunday evening at about 11:45 Jim Tempels and Steve Kurus, the two Greeks in charge of the American pool hall at 624 Front street, claim they were assaulted by six or seven men. Both Greeks had their eyes blacked and Kurus, injured the most, was a target for a whiskey bottle which one of the crowd threw at him, the bottle smashing to bits on his head and cutting his forehead and hurting his eye. The six who had started the fight hung around the place at least six minutes and during that time Tempels, according to his story, ran around looking for a policeman. Tempels says the row started when one of the men asked for peanuts and popcorn on credit. He said he could not let him have it and that he had to see Kurus first if he allowed any credit. The man then made a pass at him, says Tempels, and upset all the popcorn and peanuts on the sidewalk. An inquiry at the city clerk revealed the fact that no warrants had been issued to date.

CITY ENGINEER TO BE KEPT BUSY

Given Lot of Work at Council Meeting—Geo. Anderson Granted Liquor License

NO. ST. COMMISSIONER ELECTED

Hugo Schwartzkopf Expressed His Indignation at the Unwarranted Use of His Name for Office

The city council, with the exception of Alderman Dieckhaus, was present at last night's meeting of the council.

The water and light board communication asking that the location of standpipes used for filling tanks of street sprinklers be designated. The matter was left in the hands of the street committee to act in conjunction with the water and light board, they to designate the location of the standpipes.

The water and light board asked the council's consent to remove electric light poles from Front and Laurel streets and to establish service leads in the rear of the various premises. The request was made as the amount involved was estimated to exceed over $500. On motion, the request was granted and the council further adopted a provision that the water and light board file with the council at the conclusion of the work an itemized statement of the expenditures involved in the change made.

Dr. R. A. Boise, the health officer, addressed a communication asking that sanitary police be appointed. This was acted on later in the meeting.

Liberty Hose Co. No. 3 asked for a lock and 15 keys and the matter was referred to the fire and water committee.

P. W. Donovan, in a written communication, stated that his paving and curbing was in when the lot was bought where his residence now stands and the council took a vote on refunding him the $14.98 he had paid for grading. Alderman Elder, Purdy, Webb, Anderson, Lagerquist and Rowley voted aye and 3 aldermen, Messrs. Fogelstrom, Henning and Olson voted nay.

On motion the street committee is to examine Third avenue and see about repairs to the approaches and curbs.

City Engineer Peacock is to examine into the feasibility of extending the general sewer through the dump and to Laurel street.

The 150 foot stretch of the general sewer which is caving in near the cemetery was referred to the sewer and police committee to act in conjunction with the street committee.

The George Anderson liquor license was granted, after a number of the council had inspected the premises located near the Hotel Earl. Five aldermen, Messrs. Elder, Purdy, Webb, Olson and Lagerquist voted aye and 4, Messrs. Fogelstrom, Henning, Anderson and Rowley voted nay.

The bond of the city engineer in the sum of $2,000 was approved. The $1,000 bond of the city clerk and his $1,000 bond as clerk of the municipal court were approved.

Following a question about the water and light board investigation, City Attorney M. E. Ryan stated that the defense would be ready soon. Mr. Mahlum was frequently out of the city on business and no date could at the present time be set for the hearing. A special meeting will be called whenever the defense is ready.

For sanitary policeman and poundmaster there were two applications

FINDS DEATH ON HER KNEES

Special by Phone to Dispatch: Ironton, Minn., May 21—Mrs. Ed. Johnson, aged 19 years, committed suicide at Ironton in the early morning hours. She attached a cord to a door knob in the pantry and strangled herself on her knees. The husband did not miss her until he awoke in the morning and searched about the neighborhood for her. Charles Larson, a neighbor, found her in the pantry of her own home. Deputy Coroner D. E. Whitney of Brainerd, was summoned and drove out from Brainerd. The couple had been married three years.

fore the council, that of E. A. Palmer and F. Sentil. On a formal ballot Sentil polled 8 votes and Hugo Schwartzkopf 1. Mr. Sentil was declared elected. His salary will be $40 per month.

The election of a street commissioner was in order. Aldermen Fogelstrom and Anderson voted to ballot for street commissioner and 7 aldermen, Messrs. Elder, Purdy, Webb, Henning, Olson, Lagerquist and Rowley voted nay. Three applications are on file for the office, Charles Neal, Wm. Barron and Wm. Wendt.

The city engineer was instructed to survey an alley through block 4 of Miller's addition.

Alderman Webb wants north Fifth street paved. If the paving was not done soon the petitioners desired their money back. On motion the city engineer was instructed to prepare plans and estimates for paving the street.

City Engineer Peacock filed his estimate of the cost of paving South Seventh street from the north line of Oak street to the north line of Maple street.

Preparation of subgrade, $175.00; 3,900 square yards of paving (as per specifications) at 87½ cents per square yard, $3,412.50; engineering and inspector, $170.62; incidentals, $25.00; total estimate, $3,783.12.

City Engineer Peacock showed a plan drawn by him giving the condition of drainage on South Seventh street and suggesting where to place sewers to further drain the district.

W. M. Mathison, receiver of the National Light, Heat & Power Co., reported on progress accomplished.

Hugo Schwartzkopf took umbrage at the action of the city council in using his name in various elections when he had never applied for an office. He wanted the alderman who had voted for him as street commissioner to reveal his identity. He said he was proud of the stand he had taken in the water and light board investigation. He objected to being called a dark horse.

Northern Pacific Advertisises Town as a Fishing Point and Offers Reduced Rates

In every metropolitan daily the Northern Pacific railway is advertising Brainerd as a fishing point and from May 29 to September 30 inclusive is offering round trip rate at low prices from Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis to Brainerd.

From Duluth a round trip rate of $4.50 is made. From St. Paul or Minneapolis a round trip of $5.60 is made. An appeal is made to fishermen and resorters to visit the city. This innovation on the part of the Northern Pacific railway is a move in the right direction and increased travel will result, benefiting both Brainerd and the railway.

From the daily record made in Brainerd no one need doubt but that our fishing is just as good and even better than some places around us. We have bankers from Pequot landing 35 pound muscalonges and the J. & I. brakemen trundling pike home in a wheelbarrow. There are few mosquitos. Bait and the other necessary things to delight a fisherman's heart and appetite exist in abundance in Brainerd.

Why Taxes Are Necessary

Organized society, usually called government, has many objects besides securing to people the "right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." To attain these ends it frames policies promotive of the general welfare and it devises ways and means to defray the cost of carrying out its policies. The latter is the age-long problem of taxation.

It is a general policy of government to do those things for all which no one could do as well or at as low cost for oneself. For instance it establishes public schools under that policy. To secure to all the "right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" it must preserve order, insure enjoyment of those rights, protect individuals and property. To do this it has to establish and maintain courts and their staffs of officials. To give effect to these and the many other functions of government public buildings must be erected and maintained, land and material bought, and a large number of persons employed, all of which must be paid for.

Organized society has no other way to obtain the money with which to defray these costs than by compelling those who get the benefits to contribute the money. It cannot "make money." It can borrow it, but that merely defers to a future time the call upon the citizen. Without money to carry on its activities government could not exist and society would relapse into the barbarism from which its organizing redeemed it. This is the inescapable condition that makes taxation necessary.

Out of the experiments of governments in the past, modern governments have come to derive revenue mainly by two methods, one the direct, the other the indirect method of taxing. The direct tax is based upon Adam Smith's third principle that "everyone should contribute to the general expense in proportion to his ability to pay." In theory, although not always true in practice, ability to pay is measured by the amount and value of property owned by an individual and is known with us as the general property tax. The indirect method levies a tax on a commodity or service. Except where limit is put upon what price may be charged for commodity or service, those owning the one or rendering the other may add the tax to cost and, merged in price, pass it on to be paid by the consumer or the served. Of this form of taxation our gross earnings tax and the license paid by liquor dealers are illustrations.

The direct tax is intended to rest where paid and not be shifted on to others and, largely, this is true. It cannot be shifted where the person paying it cannot make the price of what he sells. It can be where that power exists, as with landlords, for instance, who may merge taxes in rentals, or money lenders who may make borrowers pay the tax levied on credit instruments. But whichever method is adopted payment of the tax is essential to maintenance of government.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Empress

W. G. Trout, well known in musical circles in Minneapolis, is the name of the new singer scheduled to appear at the Empress on Thursday evening. He has a baritone voice of excellent quality and will assist in the harmony trio.

Manager Laymon promises an exceptionally fine picture by the Selig company at tonight's show. It is entitled "The Devil, Servant and the Man," and presents a phase of domestic life sometimes encountered in the third year of married life when the husband tires of the company of his spouse. In this case the devil presents temptations which the recalcitrant husband cannot resist. The wife becomes aware of it and the devil tempts her too. Both have sinned and the servant, or the good angel, reunites them when both have seen the error of their ways.

Didn't Forget a Pal

A little insight into the life of Bob Fitzsimmons is told in the following story. Bob Fitzsimmons in his earlier days learned blacksmithing out in Australia. He has always shown a determination to excel in whatever he undertook. He one time won a horse-shoeing championship of the world. He was foreman of the shop for many years but after his success as a prize fighter, drifted to America to conquer new worlds. His old boss back in Australia met with reverse and it was only through accident that he learned of his poverty and whereabouts. Immediately that Fitzsimmons heard of his distress he sent the following brief and characteristic note to his fellow workman of long ago:

"I'm on easy street now old boy, come and live with me, take a rest in your old age, signed Robert Fitzsimmons."

Albini & Avolo Tonight

Of all shows that ever came to Brainerd in the last twenty years, there never was such a thunder bolt struck as was last night with the appearance of the above company. You could hear them say around the streets, "it can't be up too much when they are only charging 50 cents." This is where the mistake happened, for there never was a $2.00 show in this city that could at any time compare to this.

This great company of vaudeville artists are without a doubt a special star feature in their own line. From the very commencement up to the conclusion of the performance, never were artists greeted with the applause with which this company was last night.

Commencing at 8:30 o'clock until 11 o'clock you could hear applause, whistling and stamping throughout every act, and if they had to do the encores that the people wanted them to do, the show would not end.

Tonight the management announces that they will give a grand expose of Anna Eve Fay, and Dr. Melver Tyndal, and others, and that he will show

CITY ENGINEER TO BE KEPT BUSY

Given Lot of Work at Council Meeting—Geo. Anderson Granted Liquor License

NO. ST. COMMISSIONER ELECTED

Hugo Schwartzkopf Expressed His Indignation at the Unwarranted Use of His Name for Office

The city council, with the exception of Alderman Dieckhaus, was present at last night's meeting of the council.

The water and light board communication asking that the location of standpipes used for filling tanks of street sprinklers be designated. The matter was left in the hands of the street committee to act in conjunction with the water and light board, they to designate the location of the standpipes.

The water and light board asked the council's consent to remove electric light poles from Front and Laurel streets and to establish service leads in the rear of the various premises. The request was made as the amount involved was estimated to exceed over $500. On motion, the request was granted and the council further adopted a provision that the water and light board file with the council at the conclusion of the work an itemized statement of the expenditures involved in the change made.

Dr. R. A. Beise, the health officer, addressed a communication asking that sanitary police be appointed. This was acted on later in the meeting.

Liberty Hose Co. No. 3 asked for a lock and 18 keys and the matter was referred to the fire and water committee.

P. W. Donovan, in a written communication, stated that his paving and curbing was in when the lot was bought where his residence now stands and the council took a vote on refunding him the $14.98 he had paid for grading. Alderman Elder, Purdy, Webb, Anderson, Lagerquist and Rowley voted aye and 3 aldermen, Messrs. Fogelstrom, Henning and Olson voted nay.

On motion the street committee is to examine Third avenue and see about repairs to the approaches and curbs.

City Engineer Peacock is to examine into the feasibility of extending the general sewer through the dump and to Laurel street.

The 150 foot stretch of the general sewer which is caving in near the cemetery was referred to the sewer and police committee to act in conjunction with the street committee.

The George Anderson liquor license was granted, after a number of the council had inspected the premises located near the Hotel Earl. Five aldermen, Messrs. Elder, Purdy, Webb, Olson and Lagerquist voted aye and 4, Messrs. Fogelstrom, Henning, Anderson and Rowley voted nay.

The bond of the city engineer in the sum of $2,000 was approved. The $1,000 bond of the city clerk and his $1,000 bond as clerk of the municipal court were approved.

Following a question about the water and light board investigation, City Attorney M. E. Ryan stated that the defense would be ready soon. Mr. Mahlum was frequently out of the city on business and no date could at the present time be set for the hearing. A special meeting will be called whenever the defense is ready.

For sanitary policeman and poundmaster there were two applications.

Special by Phone to Dispatch:

Ironton, Minn., May 21—Mrs. Ed. Johnson, aged 19 years, committed suicide at Ironton in the early morning hours. She attached a cord to a door knob in the pantry and strangled herself on her knees. The husband did not miss her until he awoke in the morning and searched about the neighborhood for her. Charles Larson, a neighbor, found her in the pantry of her own home. Deputy Coroner D. E. Whitney of Brainerd, was summoned and drove out from Brainerd. The couple had been married three years.

Before the council, that of E. A. Palmer and F. Senti. On a formal ballot Senti polled 8 votes and Hugo Schwartzkopf 1. Mr. Senti was declared elected. His salary will be $40 per month.

The election of a street commissioner was in order. Aldermen Fogelstrom and Anderson voted to ballot for street commissioner and 7 aldermen, Messrs. Elder, Purdy, Webb, Henning, Olson, Lagerquist and Rowley voted nay. Three applications are on file for the office, Charles Neal, Wm. Barron and Wm. Wendt.

The city engineer was instructed to survey an alley through block 4 of Miller's addition.

Alderman Webb wants north Fifth street paved. If the paving was not done soon the petitioners desired their money back. On motion the city engineer was instructed to prepare plans and estimates for paving the street.

City Engineer Peacock filed his estimate of the cost of paving South Seventh street from the north line of Oak street to the north line of Maple street:

Preparation of subgrade, $175.00;

3,900 square yards of paving (as per specifications) at 87½ cents per square yard, $3,412.50; engineering and inspection, $170.62; incidentals, $25.00; total estimate, $3,783.12.

City Engineer Peacock showed a plan drawn by him giving the condition of drainage on South Seventh street and suggesting where to place sewers to further drain the district.

W. M. Mathison, receiver of the National Light, Heat & Power Co., reported on progress accomplished.

Hugo Schwartzkopf took umbrage at the action of the city council in using his name in various elections when he had never applied for an office. He wanted the alderman who had voted for him as street commissioner to reveal his identity. He said he was proud of the stand he had taken in the water and light board investigation. He objected to being called a dark horse.

Caprivi and the Kaiser.

General Caprivi, a stolid, unimaging kind of man, with much sound sense and some kindness of heart, received a message from the emperor one day while he was at dinner. He rose and went to his imperial master at once.
When the following conversation took place: "I want you," said William II.,
"to take Bismarck's two places as chancellor and Prussian prime minister." "I am at your majesty's orders," answered the general. "Have you no conditions to make?" "It is not for me, sire, to make conditions." "Very well. Come here tomorrow morning.
What are you going to do now?" "I shall go home and finish my dinner sire." A very good, soldierly answer.

A Weird Old House.

There is an old manor house at Knarborough, England, parts of which were built 700 years ago. It is a fine place, with magnificent paneling in the rooms, a bedstead in which Cromwell once slept, a priests' hiding place and a ghost. The priests' hiding place is concealed by a spring door. The present occupant of the house says that during the night sounds of footsteps are heard on the landing, and it is impossible to keep the door of this room closed. On one occasion the footsteps were accompanied by a loud bump at the door of another room. During some recent restorations the skeleton of a woman was found buried at the foot of a staircase.

Washington's False Teeth.

Washington is said to have had the first set of false teeth manufactured in America. They were made in Baltimore and so pleased was the Father of His Country with the improvement they made in his facial contour that he straightway ordered his portrait painted. It might be remarked that these teeth were not a perfect fit since it is declared that they rattled so badly while he was reading his inaugural speech when first elected president that he could scarcely be understood.

Your Hosiery, Madam, Should Fit Snug—Hold Their Shape

The test of hosiery is in the wearing. They must not stretch and rip. If they do after one wearing, the hose will wrinkle and bunch. They're cheap in price, but poor in economy.

Patrick-Duluth Hosiery for Women are knit to hold their shape. They conform to every line from toe to knee, and give only where elasticity is required. Patrick-Duluth regular women's hose of pure mercerized silk knit from four-thread best spun yarn with six thread high spliced heel and toe. Double sole. Top with four-inch double thick hem, not knitted or sewed on, but in one continuous, seamless fabric. They wear as no other kind will. Ask your dealer to show you Patrick-Duluth hose for evening wear. They satisfy the most fastidious and judicious buyer.

Caprivi and the Kaiser.

General Caprivi, a stolid, ruminating kind of man, with much sound sense and some kindness of heart, received a message from the emperor one day while he was at dinner. He rose and went to his imperial master at once when the following conversation took place: "I want you," said William II. "to take Bismarck's two places as chancellor and Prussian prime minister." "I am at your majesty's orders," answered the general. "Have you no conditions to make?" "It is not for me, sire, to make conditions." "Very well. Come here tomorrow morning. What are you going to do now?" "I shall go home and finish my dinner sire." A very good, soldierly answer.

A Weird Old House.

There is an old manor house at Knaresborough, England, parts of which were built 700 years ago. It is a fine place, with magnificent paneling in the rooms, a bedstead in which Cromwell once slept, a priests' hiding place and a ghost. The priests' hiding place is concealed by a spring door. The present occupant of the house says that during the night sounds of footsteps are heard on the landing, and it is impossible to keep the door of this room closed. On one occasion the footsteps were accompanied by a loud bump at the door of another room. During some recent restorations the skeleton of a woman was found buried at the foot of a staircase.

Washington's False Teeth.

Washington is said to have had the first set of false teeth manufactured in America. They were made in Baltimore and so pleased was the Father of His Country with the improvement they made in his facial contour that he straightway ordered his portrait painted. It might be remarked that these teeth were not a perfect fit since it is declared that they rattled so badly while he was reading his inaugural speech when first elected president that he could scarcely be understood.
